A Day to Connect

Family Fun and Resource Fair

Saturday, October 14, 2017 1:00 to 3:30pm
700 Brooks Ave, Raleigh, NC 27607

[What is ADC – A Day to Connect?]

A fair for everyone in the community that is both fun and informative with resources about companies, organizations and non-profits that help families having members with special needs.

Free admission for parents, caregivers and children!

Sponsorship and Exhibitor Registration Fees are also a fundraiser to support Special Summer Camp at Brooks Avenue!

[Connect with Resources
in the Triangle...]

Featured groups will be on site to answer questions and give information about services and products designed to improve Quality of Life and create opportunities for new Experiences.

Guest Speakers will share personal testimonies and give REAL solutions to help parents and caregivers navigate the process of transitioning to adulthood.

[Connect with Resources in the Triangle...]

Our 2017 Resource Fair will focus primarily on the needs of families who have an individual with special needs transitioning to adulthood.

Information from the following organizations will be available:

The Power of the Dream
Hand MeUps Thrift Shop
Glass Law Group

The Arc of the Triangle
Gigi's Playhouse
Shephards College

....and more are being added daily!

[Connect with Resources in the Triangle...]

Guest Speakers will share their experiences in making the transition and give your family inspiration, ideas and REAL solutions...

Kenneth Kelty - will inspire you from his own personal journey

Anna Cunningham - parent who learned how to dream BIG for her child

Deb Zuver & John Merins- professionals who will help navigate the process
